COMPOSING REMARKABLE CONNECTIONS

Meet Grant Holmes: The Singing Emcee

At the tender age of five, Grant performed his first singing solo on stage, sparking a lifelong passion for music, theater, and connecting with audiences. Raised in Ohio and having traveled extensively across the U.S. and Canada, Grant learned to interact with people from all walks of life. His love for the outdoors and mountains later prompted a move to Southwest Virginia, where he now resides within sight of the Blue Ridge mountain ranges.

Grant's diverse career includes construction, marketing, IT, hospitality, and business management, making him a true renaissance man. He's an avid motorcyclist, ballroom dancer, and salvager, sharing a love for life and a slightly goofy sense of humor instilled by his father, a former Marine drill sergeant.

For Grant, there's no greater joy than uniting audiences through music, storytelling, and entertainment. As The Singing Emcee, he continually strives to elevate Meetings & Events by crafting memorable experiences that leave a lasting impression. His passion is to engage, uplift, and inspire through the magic of song.

He took us on an entertainment journey!

"Grant Holmes didn't just host our corporate awards event, he took us on an entertainment journey that had everyone captivated from start to finish. His musical talents gave the whole experience an unforgettable energy."
